August 26th, 2026 (Austin, TX): Legacy Redefined: Create an Impact Money Can't Buy by Richard Watts (Greenleaf Book Group Press) debuted at #11 on the USA Today bestseller list this week. <https://www.usatoday.com/booklist>

In Legacy Redefined, Richard Watts, advisor and legal counsel to America's wealthiest families, shares cautionary tales of how financial inheritance can create conflict for those who receive it. Legacy Redefined is a wake-up call for the many who strive to acquire wealth and have a vision of leaving sums of money for their families, not realizing that pride in their accumulations and care in managing their money is difficult to transfer to the next generation.

Richard Watts is a lawyer, author, columnist, speaker, problem solver, and the wise counsel to many of America's wealthiest families. The founder of Family Business Office® ("FBO"), he speaks internationally on the hazards of having too much, the effects of wealth on parenting in the modern affluent family, crafting a safe estate plan, and what it means to create an impactful legacy.
