Greenleaf Book Group Takes Home Four Accolades in the Gold Ink Awards Competition

August 3, 2011, Austin TX – Greenleaf Book Group was recognized for excellent book cover and jacket design in this year's 24th Annual Gold Ink Awards. A winner of several Gold, Silver and Bronze prizes in past years, Greenleaf received two Pewter awards in the Book Jackets category for Rainfall and Bullets and The Velocity Manifesto as well as two Pewter awards in the Book Covers category for Nineteenth Street NW and Grace.

The Gold Ink Awards represents the industry's most prestigious print competition and honors the year's best printed materials based on technical difficulty, print quality and overall visual effect. As a Gold Ink Award honoree, Greenleaf Book Group is a member of an elite group of the most respected and influential creators of printed work this country has to offer.
